Within this price range everyone can be satisfied. There is a good variation in the best styles for this Winter, giving each model a touch of originality. These Coats are lined and some interlined, they are made of the season's finest fabrics and are elegantly trimmed. Fur collars and cuffs grace many of them and others have big collars of self material. We can assure you that true value is represented in every Coat we are offering.

Attractive Informal Frocks $25.00, $35.00 and $45.00

Good taste and originality is manifest in these smart Dresses for street wear, for luncheons, for afternoon or evening parties that are informal. One does not usually find such quality and good styling in Dresses at these prices. This means that you can have a Canton Crepe, Chiffon, Poirer Twill or Tricotine Dress that looks like a more expensive garment than it really is. You will be pleased with the variety we have and will enjoy making a selection from them. If you are needing a new Frock for the informal holiday festivities, this showing should not be overlooked.

Gracefully Fashioned Evening Dresses

There is a plentiful variety in the styles of Evening Dresses this season but, still, every creation has that undefinable something about it that stamps it, unmistakably Winter '21-'22.

It seems that our present showing of formal Frocks is more lovely than ever before. The dainty array of soft colors and of gleaming trimmings is almost mystifying, it is so difficult to choose which one you think is the prettiest.

Unusual self material rose buds give a touch of originality to one lovely model of Chiffon over Canton Crepe. This combination of materials is very effective.

A petal motif is brought out in a very distinctive model of Taffeta which is beautiful indeed.

For the Miss there is one particularly good looking Basque with puff sleeves.

Other smart models are in lace and satin and lace and canton crepe combinations.
